

Building Bridges Word by Word's Book Giveaways

Calling All Authors

We invite you to enter your book in the Building Bridges Word by Word's monthly Book Giveaways program. It is a wonderful way to promote your book, expand your audience, and support our efforts to build bridges across the divides.

For the Book Giveaways, we will create a profile of your book and post it on our Substack. We will share the draft with you for your approval before posting. We will announce the Book Giveaways on our Substack early in the month. Throughout the month, we will promote the drawing (and your book) on Substack and on our Facebook page. The drawing will occur at the end of the month. At that point, we will announce the winner on our Substack, thank you for your generous donation, and encourage people to read your book and check out your website (if applicable).

In return, we ask that you share the Substack post about your Book Giveaway with your networks (there will be a button on the Substack post to make sharing easy) and mail an autographed copy of your book to the winner of the drawing.

If you're interested in participating, please email your answers to the questions below to buildingbridgeswbw@gmail.com. We will keep your contact information confidential.

We also hope you'll consider participating in the project by sending in a reflection on a saying, quote, poem, or song. To learn more about this and the project, please check out our Call for Stories.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact us at buildingbridgewbw@gmail.com.

We look forward to hearing from you.
